The Golf FORE Kids etiquette program for juniors combines a fun, family-oriented resort activity with The Ritz-Carlton tradition of offering “social savvy” courses. The sessions expose children to the game of golf, its fundamental rules and long-standing heritage of etiquette and courtesy. All participants get a chance to hit golf balls in this fun, hands-on junior golf etiquette program, which is conducted by The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club’s professional staff. The program includes basic instruction on grip, stance and swing, on the practice tee and short game area.

Guests at The Ritz-Carlton Orlando can enjoy all the facilities and services at the 500-acre resort, including the 18-hole championship golf course, designed by Greg Norman and the 40,000-square-foot Ritz-Carlton Spa offering a wide selection of natural treatments, baths and hydrotherapies. Access is also available to the neighboring JW Marriott hotel, which offers a lazy river pool, as well as other games and activities for families. Guests of both hotels share all the services and facilities at the resort.
